Grand Marshal Selection Criteria

The Grand Marshal represents the heart, pride, and spirit of the Fiestas Patrias Parade. Nominees should embody the values, history, and cultural vibrancy of the Eloy community. Selection will be based on the following:

- The nominee must reside in the City of Eloy or surrounding areas or have made meaningful contributions that benefit the Eloy community.
 - The nominee must be a respected member of the community and in good standing.
 - Nominees should demonstrate exceptional service, pride, and commitment to the community, the City of Eloy, Pinal County, the State of Arizona, or our nation.
 - Nominees should be willing and able to fulfill the duties of the CDLU Fiestas Patrias Parade Grand Marshal, including providing and decorating their own parade vehicle or float.
 - Nominees must be at least 18 years of age.
 - Individuals may be nominated posthumously with the consent of their surviving family, who will assume the Grand Marshal responsibilities.
